"Coyote and the Enemy Aliens". Thomas King's story, "Coyote and the Enemy Aliens", is a connection between the internment of Japanese Canadians and the history of the Aboriginals. With the reminder of these incidents King wishes to lecture us about what steers people in such a direction of callous disregard for others.

And everyone loves a Coyote story. One day, back in 1941, the Whitemen out west hired Coyote. Boy, you say. Ho ho! But wait until you see what happens next. A Short History of Indians in Canada, Thomas King's
